

Profiles

FINAL PERSONA LIST WITH NEW NAMES:

1. The Food-Obsessed Romantic 🍕

- "You believe the highest form of intimacy is sharing a plate of fries at 2 AM. Your love language? Aggressively recommending restaurants. If your date orders a salad on the first date, you will spiral. You don't just want a partner, you want a co-conspirator in your quest to eat everything delicious on this cursed earth."

2. The Chronic Analyzer 🤔

- "You have spent 47 minutes dissecting a two-word text. You are Sherlock Holmes, but for relationships, and also significantly more anxious. Every 'lol' is a coded message. Every period at the end of a sentence is a red flag. You don't fall in love, you build elaborate conspiracy theories about it."

3. The Delulu Dreamer 💖

- "You are one 'accidental' coffee spill away from your rom-com origin story. You have pre-planned your wedding to someone you locked eyes with on the subway. Twice. You believe in soulmates, destiny, and that the universe is personally invested in your love life. Reality is just a suggestion."

4. The Serial Ghoster 🌍

- "You would rather climb a mountain in a thunderstorm than define the relationship. Your ideal partner? Someone who doesn't ask where you've been for three weeks. You're not scared of love, you're just allergic to being in one place for too long. Settling down sounds like a prison sentence with nice furniture."

5. The Vibe Checker 🎲

- "Labels? Expectations? Planning beyond next Thursday? Absolutely not. You are the human embodiment of '¯_(ツ)_/¯' and honestly, it's working for you. While everyone else is having relationship meltdowns, you're just here, thriving in blissful ambiguity. Love is a journey, and you forgot to bring a map."

6. The Trauma Magnet 🌱

- "If someone has emotional baggage, you will help them unpack it, organize it, and probably color-code it. You are inexplicably attracted to people who need 'fixing.' Your ideal date involves deep existential conversations and gentle crying. You don't have a type, you have a rescue mission."

7. The Gesture Collector ✨

- "You remember birthdays, coffee orders, and that one obscure story they told you six months ago. You leave sticky notes everywhere like a romantic serial killer. You believe love is stored in the small details, and you have approximately 47 spreadsheets to prove it. You are the Taylor Swift of relationships."

8. The Unhinged Romantic 🔥

- "You don't do anything halfway, especially love. If you're in, you're IN. Your emotional range is either absolute euphoria or full existential crisis. There is no in-between. You need a partner who can handle the intensity or will simply perish trying. Chill? Never heard of her."

9. The Romance Buzzkill 🙄

- "You side-eye every rom-com. You have a five-year plan and an exit strategy for every relationship. Love is great, but have they considered the statistical probability of long-term compatibility? You're not pessimistic—you're just the only one being honest here."

10. The Love Denier 😊

- "You have convinced yourself that love is a scam invented by greeting card companies. You claim you're thriving alone, but you've also watched every rom-com ever made. Twice. You want love, but you're also terrified of it, so you've built an emotional fortress and thrown away the key. It's fine. Everything's fine."
